

Trustee - Peter

Peter is a former pupil and now Governor at St Albans School. He is passionate about all sports with particular interest in rugby, having been a member of the Old Albanian Rugby Football Club for many years.

He is well aware of the benefits of participation in sport at all levels and sees The 948 Sports Foundation as a brilliant way of enabling this.

Peter, who lives near Berkhamsted, is married with two grown-up daughters and is the owner of an Estate Agency in London.
